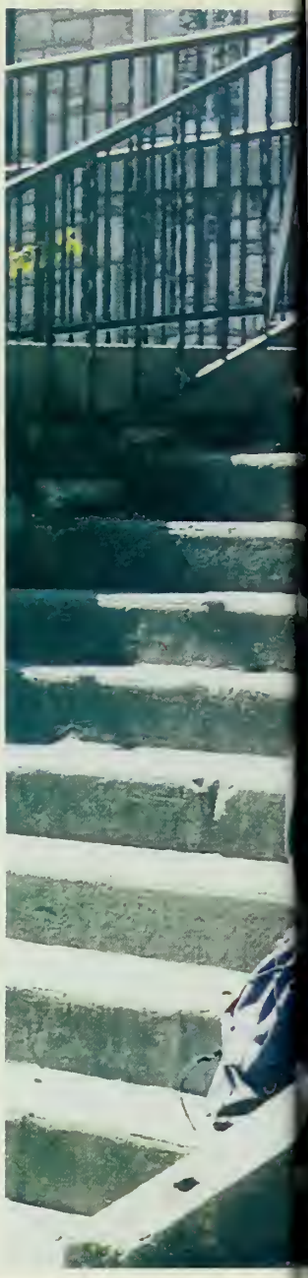
One Body

1999 Darda Volume 75

Trevecca Nazarene University
333 Murfreesboro Road
Nashville, TN 37210



"The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body*. So it is with Christ. For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body--whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free--and we were all given one Spirit to drink.*

"Now the body is not made up of one part but many. If the foot should say, 'Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,' it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. And if the ear should say, 'Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,' it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? But God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as He wanted them to be. If they were all one part, where would the body be? As it is, there are many parts, but one body*."* 1 Corinthians 12:1-20

As a community, Trevecca students recognize our differences and rejoice in them. We recognize that we cannot function without each other's assistance and support. We honor our many parts, but we come together to make a whole. In our one-ness with our brothers and sisters, we commit ourselves to exemplify love and toleration. Our love for God compels us to be one body*.*

Welcome Back

New acquaintances, smiling faces, and old friends are something we always enjoy. For freshmen, the beginning of a college semester is exciting and scary. For upperclassmen, it can be a new experience all over again with new faces and new classes, but one thing is always there--fun!

At the beginning of the fall semester, there were many activities planned to get people interacting with other students and professors in the Trevecca Community. As students were moving into the dorms, others were lending a helping hand. Couches, cushions, and clothes were carried in load by load. The Block Party was held in front of Jernigan and was the last event before classes began. Hamburgers, hot dogs, and crazy games were to be had. It was a great time to meet new people and get together with old friends.

The Back-to-School Bash had fun, food, and games for all! Water, shaving cream, and mud were everywhere by the end of the day. Each class sponsored different events, and the Social Life Committee did a wonderful job getting it together. The slip 'n slide, mud pool, and firetruck were all highlights of the warm, sunny day.

Club Rush allowed clubs to recruit new members. Many organizations had tables set up at the "Carnival" in the quad in hopes of getting students involved. Adding to the fun of the afternoon were cotton candy, a dunking machine, and face painting.

As the new year began, Treveccans foresaw fun and fellowship in the future!

Homecoming 1998

On November 2, the Trevecca community began to buzz with the festivities of another Homecoming. Cars began to arrive filled with nostalgic alumni, and a united spirit filled the students as they rallied to show their support and love for TNU. They began to emerge dressed in strange attire for the dress-up days, which included Camouflage Day, Hillbilly Day, and Purple-and-White Day.

The chilly weather couldn't discourage students from getting rowdy with a game of Capture the Flag on Tuesday night. Afterward, everyone warmed up by enjoying Smores 'n More at the pavilion. Many people showed up for a chance to enjoy the gooey, chocolate treats, good music, and great friends.

The traditional Homecoming banquet was held on Thursday and was sponsored by the Senior Class. This was followed by the Coronation, held in the Towers Annex. Everyone waited in anticipation for the 1998 Homecoming Queen and King to be crowned, and applause broke out as the titles were given to Jenni Jones and Wesley Furlong. The evening continued with a bonfire and pep rally to get ready for Friday's games.

The big day began with the annual parade, consisting of floats made by each class and other organizations on campus. As the sun set, students and alumni packed into the gym to support the Trojan basketball teams. The ladies took on Malone College and emerged victorious with a score of 98-85. The men in purple and white made the night a complete success as they defeated Indiana University Southeast 73-59.

The week came to a close on Saturday with a concert at Nashville First Church of the Nazarene, celebrating the Year of the Church. The oldest churches on the region were honored and the Concert Choir and its alumni performed. Homecoming 1998 was a spirit-filled week of fun and festivities that will not be soon forgotten.

SPIRITUAL Life

If there was one promise of God that the Trevecca community witnessed this year it was when He said, "Behold! I will do a new thing." Over and over this testimony rang out from the voices of students. It could be heard during Roundtable as students continually spoke of a God who was everything but remote. It could be heard in Flocks groups all over the campus as students gathered weekly for times of encouragement and accountability. This testimony could even be heard in the farthest regions of this world. For if there was one thing this community quickly realized, it was that the testimony couldn't be contained.

When the love of God penetrates a heart and when His light breaks through the darkness, it is uncontainable. This year, this light spread all over Nashville into the hearts and lives of our community. This transforming light could be seen from the prisons in Nashville to the small, country churches in Kentucky. It could be witnessed in a mighty way within our surrounding neighborhood. Rather than building bigger walls, the Trevecca community this year decided to pull out a sledgehammer and begin tearing them down.

To the surrounding community, Trevecca is more than an institution offering degrees. We truly have become the city that is built on a hill offering light to all that are within reach.

Serving Our Community

Leadership through service is what Trevecca is about. There are many ways that Trevecca is involved in service, whether it be on our own hilltop within the Trevecca community, or outside our comfort zone and into the Nashville community. Trevecca students serve in area churches, on the mission field in the summertime, downtown at the homeless shelter, and even on the TNU campus.

To help others in our community the senior class sponsors a campus-wide blood drive twice a year. It is held in Tarter Student Activity Center and remains quite busy throughout the day. In the fall we competed against rival Belmont University. After a long week of recruiting and a day of giving, Trevecca came out on top with nearly 80 pints of blood for the Red Cross.

In the fall the junior class sponsors a campus clean-up day. Students rise early on a Saturday morning to help pick up trash, rake leaves, and clear brush. Caring for the grounds of Trevecca creates pride in our campus.

In a variety of ways Trevecca students are challenged to begin lives of service during their years on the hill.

Angel Tree Christmas

From the classroom to the computer lab, from the library to the chapel, from the cafeteria to the dorm room, TNU students daily live out the university's mission as a Christian community providing education for leadership and service. At the end of the Fall '98 semester, an ultimate embodiment of that mission took place on campus.

On Saturday evening, December 12, the students of TNU adopted over 100 children of prison inmates and then hosted a Christmas party for the children and their guardians. In all, over 400 persons were present. Through the Angel Tree Program, students provided various gifts for each child. Initiated, organized, and carried out by the student body, the event brought TNU students and members of Nashville community together. Trevecca student government leaders decided to forego the traditional end-of-the-semester student Christmas party and to share the event with our larger community. The evening included games, refreshments, music, a clown, a visit from Santa Claus, a gift exchange, entertainment from Masterworks, and the telling of the Christmas story.

Believing in a compassionate ministry of incarnation, the student body of Trevecca demonstrated vision, leadership, administration, and service at its very best!

Waggoner Library and Center for Instructional Technology

On Tuesday, April 27, 1999, the University family and the Trevecca Community participated in a groundbreaking ceremony for the new library. The ceremony recognized the contributions of the various groups and individuals who had planned for this building and included a liturgy of commitment from those who would work to make the facility become a reality and from th who would work, teach, and study in the new structure.

With students, faculty, administrators, staff members, guests, and r dents of the Towers looking on, administrators, trustees, and honored gue took their turns with the shovels. Then faculty members and students joir the groundbreaking ritual.

Teaching Excellence Award

The Teaching Excellence Award is presented annually by the Conference of Chairpersons to a member of the faculty whose teaching demonstrates the highest quality. The 1999 recipient of this award is Professor Daniel B. Spross.

Dr. Spross is director of the Graduate Religion Program and professor of biblical theology and literature. Since Dr. Spross joined the Trevecca religion faculty in 1988, he has modeled for his students the very best in scholarship and professional commitment to teaching.

1999 Faculty Retirees

Two popular professors retired at the end of the school year. Dr. John Chilton, professor of history, and Dr. Gerard Nyssen, professor of chemistry, ended their teaching careers with a combined total of 55 years of teaching at TNU.

Dr. Chilton graduated from Trevecca in 1964 and stayed to serve as controller for two years before he left to enter graduate school. In 1975 he returned to Trevecca to teach history. In his retirement Dr. Chilton plans to enjoy model railroading, gardening, reading, and traveling. The yearbook staff dedicated this year's Darda to Dr. Chilton. (See the Dedication, page 44.)

Dr. Gerard Nyssen came to Trevecca in 1969. In addition to his teaching responsibilities at Trevecca, Dr. Nyssen has done research with other academic and research institutions on projects related to environmental issues. A cyclist in his spare time, Dr. Nyssen has cycled more than 25,000 miles.

The senior class council has been working very hard this year. We have planned both big and small events for us as a c and for TNU as a whole. Our first event of the year was the blood drive. This proved to be very successful as Trevecca defeated Belmont in a competition for the most pints of blood given. Another blood drive was held in the spring as well, a Trevecca's service to the community continued.

Our next event was the Backyard Boo, our all-school fall festival. Everyone dressed up in costumes and enjoyed an outside showing of "The Bride of Frankenstein" as well as the featured band Redline. Perhaps our biggest event was the Homeoming banquet. This was held in TSAC and was catered by A Dream Come True, through Southern Way Cafe'. The night proved to be a very elegant and formal one. As friends gathered for the meal, memories were made.

Other events include the mud pit at the Back-to-School Bash (always a favorite!), a balloon fundraiser on Valentine's Da Real World 101 sessions, camping trip, and the graduation party. We had a senior class table at Club Rush, at which we provided free (fake) tattoos for all seniors, as well as a few for interested faculty members.

Our theme this year has been "Exit 99", and we hope that our last year at Trevecca will be left with lots of wonderful memories that we as a class have shared.

Psalm 143:10 "Teach me to do your will, for you are my God; may your good Spirit lead me on level ground."

Under the guidance of our fearless leader, Chad Wrye, the class of 2000 has accomplished numerous activities in the 98-99 school year. We began the year by helping to sponsor a concert performed by the highly proclaimed Sarah John. We quickly moved into a "jubilee" of school spirit as our float placed second in the homecoming parade. Working off our theme "Caution--Flammable" we built a life size, burning torch from which a mannequin was jettisoned into an awaiting truck.

Our council wasted no time in beginning to prepare for the prestigious Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held in March. Placing our minds in a giant brainstorming pot, we stirred them together and decided to designate the Union Station Hotel as our place to celebrate. Providing complimentary carriage rides and hiring a local jazz band made this "Night of Jazz" one soon not forgotten. Our class also organized two days to make our campus look immaculate by picking up the trash and, in the fall, raking the leaves. To round out the year we celebrated with an end-of-the-year beguilement that everyone could enjoy.

This year the sophomore class has had a blast. The sophomores began the year with the Freshman Float Fest, with several sophomores coming out to welcome the new freshmen to Trevecca. Everyone enjoyed ice cream floats and meeting new people, as well as catching up with friends from last year. On September 29 we sponsored a pep rally for the volleyball team, after which they won their thirteenth straight victory against TNU's biggest rival, the Lipscomb Bisons.

Each year the sophomore class is responsible for the homecoming parade. This year the council decided to move the parade from Hart Street to the newly finished entryway. Each class built a float for the parade, and a panel of judges selected the sophomore float, "Gerbil-lee," for first place.

At the beginning of the spring semester, the sophomore council turned their attention to the Valentine's Banquet, this year using the theme "Timeless Love." An excited audience gathered in TSAC to enjoy the comical entertainment of MasterWorks and the great food of A Dream Come True catering.

The sophomore class chapel was held on March 18. Jennifer Driscoll shared a brief testimony, and Regina Coonrod sang the solo part of the song "I Am Not Ashamed" with a choir of sophomores. Class chaplain Gloria Barrett led the congregation in praise and worship, and class president Andrew Bradley preached a sermon on the kingdom of God, calling all of us to consider how we live and see in that kingdom.

In April we sponsored the annual Mr. TNU Contest, which was an entertaining success.

Serving as secretary on the freshman class council has been a wonderful opportunity for me. The council was able to bond in a unique way, thanks to the sophomore class council. And thanks to the help and guidance of our sponsor, Gary Wood, we were able to form a committee of twenty-five other freshmen. This committee, known as the Freshmen Class Community Council, was first formed through the Christian Community Life classes to represent majority opinions of other students. I found the community council to be very useful and helpful, and I hope to see the continuance of this in the next freshman class as well.

Other accomplishments were made as we organized a Capture the Flag game for Homecoming week, hosted the "lighting of the grounds" ceremony during the Christmas season, and put together a pep rally for the TNU Trojans' and Lady Trojans' games against rival Lipscomb University.

With opportunities and resources put in front of us, I feel that we handled things well as "guinea pigs" of a college community.

The Trevecca Physician Assistant Program is the only PA school in the state of Tennessee, and one of only 130 in the United States. With only one in every three applicants accepted into the program, it is highly competitive.

Congratulations to the 1999 PA Department graduates!

Ethnic & Cultural Student Affairs Club

"The Ethnic & Cultural Student Affairs Club exists to be a support system for cultural and ethnic students at TNU. In addition it hopes to help educate the Trevecca community about diversity and make the community more diverse. Finally, one of the main club goals is to reach out to culturally and ethnically diverse populations in the greater Nashville area. This year, through the efforts of club president Shawn Massie, the club accomplished this goal by enlisting students to serve as mentors to children at Napier and Sudekum Homes and by having a field day at TNU for children, ages 7-12, from the projects."

Student Government Association

During the 1998-1999 school year, TNU Student Government sponsored many events and projects for the student body, including the Back-to-School Bash, the All-School '80s Skate Night, the Lighting of the Grounds at Christmas, and the End-of-the-Year Bash, Jernigan Java, and Mr. TNU.

A large project that was completed was the decoration of the Hub. SGA purchased a sofa, loveseat, rug, end tables, and lamps, all of which created a nice sitting area in the north end of the Hub. They also hung pictures of Trevecca in days gone by throughout the downstairs, along with various Trevecca memorabilia.

To complete the 1997-1998 All-School Project, this year's SGA purchased a Trojan mascot for the school. The mascot will be an added touch to the already spirited TNU ballgames.

Resident Assistants

"As resident assistants we have various responsibilities, such as lobby duty, room check, and enforcing rules. However, our job goes beyond that in that we must be a positive influence, a Christian witness, and a good role model. This job is very rewarding in that we get to meet and become friends with many of our residents as well as other students. It can be a very stressful and tiresome job at times, but I feel that, overall, it is a very fulfilling position." --Lori Neal, Night RA

CRUSADERS

The Crusaders ministry at TNU has had a long-standing tradition with the school. For years, a church would call Trevecca and ask for students to come lead a worship service. A group would then get together and visit the church. Eventually a campus ministry was formed in order to preserve this tradition. Over the years this ministry has been called by many names, including "Living Witness" and "MOT" (Ministry Outreach Teams).

This year we changed the name to "Crusaders" and we branched out in our ministry. Along with churches, we also ministered to prisons, a homeless shelter, and "Mercy Ministries," a rehabilitation center for young women.

Our focus verse this year was Isaiah 6:8: "Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; Send me!'" We think that this verse sums up the life of a Christian believer. When one is saved and sanctified by the love and the grace of God, the natural response to His will for us is "Send me!"

"The most rewarding part of playing for TNU is that the focus is not only on winning, but on being a representative for Christ."

Martie Newman, Softball

"It's awesome to have the chance to represent a Christian university that I strongly believe in! It's been a great experience to play for a Christian school for the past two seasons."

Dana Berry, Volleyball

"It motivates the team when the students come to the games to cheer us on."

Brad Votaw, Basketball

"I was amazed at the support that we received from the entire school. When you come into a program during a year in which it is rebuilding, it is very exciting when you start to see vast results."

"I give no pat answers or explanations of my journey at Trevecca. It hasbeen a struggle of both good and bad, for I have seen both and have been a part of both. What I can say, however, is that I am joyful that I now face the next part of my life with a new confidence and struggle to enter into, that of striving to be a faithful sojourner alongside the people of God, his church. Trevecca (as administration, as faculty, as students, as culture, as the church) has been sometimes faithful, sometimes not, yet always challenging as a member with me in the ongoing journey, and I hope to find her continually by my side."

"The way I see my time at TNU can be summed up in the line 'It was the best of times...it was the worst of times.' College has been a time of growth and enjoyment, but also a real struggle emotionally and spiritually. Sometimes I feel like I have fewer answers now than I did when I came to Trevecca. What my TNU experience has taught me, however, is that there can be joy in the middle of the journey. It has been a time of trusting God, holding on for all that I'm worth, and taking the most terrifying, wonderful, enlightening, most frustrating ride of my life."

"I am thankful for Trevecca and the way it has enabled me to grow as an individual. Through the experiences I've had and the friends I've formed, I have been forever changed. Most of all, I am grateful for the spiritual growth that these four years have brought me. I will always look back on this time with fond memories, but more so for the way it has shaped me into the person I am today."

The past four years of my life have gone by so quickly. It seems like just yesterday that I left all that was familiar to me and began a new stage of life. I entered Trevecca with the expectation that I was here to learn the "how-to's" of my career. I am now leaving Trevecca with a wealth of knowledge--not only book knowledge, but the knowledge that comes with experiences, with life lessons.

It has been a privilege to have been the Darda editor for the past two years. This, alone, has been one of the greatest learning experiences for me!

I wish to thank all of those who have assisted in the completion of this book: the Darda staff-Alyssa, Amanda, Halisha, Charissa, Carrie, Kerri, Jessica, Shannon, and others who contributed photography, articles, captions, ideas, etc. You all have been such a great help. To Mrs. Greathouse, thank you for being an encouragement when I thought that nothing was ever going to get done. Your help with captions, proofing, pictures, and many, many other parts of this book has been greatly appreciated. To SGA, thank you for being supportive of the Darda!

To my friends who have been tremendously supportive and helpful in the past year, thank you. Phebe, thanks for giving up your free time one Saturday to help. You'll never know how much that meant to me! You have been a such great friend. Elaine, thank you for being a humor bone so many times! It was always so nice to see you stick your head in the window of Wise #2 to say hey. I will never forget singing "our song" in the office, in the car, in our dorm room junior year, and getting complaints sometimes of being too loud. Beth, thank you for being so kind and caring and...well, such a wonderful friend. I don't think we will ever run out of things to talk about! To Megan Carden, thank you for your layouts and for spending time helping me. I also thank you for your many smiles! To Jordan King, thanks for drawing the "Chics that Feast" square; you were a great help. Amanda Marshall, thanks for helping with the captions!

To my family--Mother, Daddy, Granny, Papa, Scott, Vicki--and to my "new" family--Lynn, Ron, Michael, Grandma Hale, Granny Kemp, and Marshall--thank you all for being such a supportive and encouraging crew. To Drew, your Aunt "Yeh Yeh" and Uncle David love you SO much! You bring such joy to our lives.

To my husband, David, thank you for everything. The past year of my life has been wonderful, and I am looking forward to spending the rest of my life with you in ministry. You have shown me so much love, and you have never ceased to believe in me. Thank you for sitting in the office with me many late nights while I worked. You are so precious to me. I love you!

I thank God for sending His son to die for me. I thank Him for leading me daily. I thank Him for this community of believers, for I have learned from them and worshiped with them. He has been a God of comfort and strength so many times. His name is greatly to be praised!

Thank you to the community of Trevecca, One Body.
